Ennis a Franciscan Town

Eight centuries of presence, prayers and people.

As the Franciscan family worldwide marks the 800 th Anniversary of St. Francis of Assisi Transitus (passing) on 3 rd October 1226, the town of Ennis holds a place of special honour in Ireland's Franciscan Story. The Abbey founded by the O'Brien's of Thomond in the Mid-13 th Century, grew into one of the Orders great centres with 350 Friars and 600 pupils by 1375.

Even after the penal times and the dissolution of Monasteries, the Franciscan presence endured through individual Friars and a small community re-established in 1627.

Today that unbroken tradition continues , the present Friary, acquired in 1824 serves as a living hub of prayer, devotion and community life for so many of us.

Ennis remains home not only to the Friars but also to the Poor Clare Sisters and the Secular Franciscans, who together carry forward the spirit of Francis and Clare.

Today's feast of St. Francis amid the jubilee year is a moment to give thanks for 800 years of Blessings and to offer our thanks and appreciation to the present community of Friars, Guardian Fr. Hugh and his fellow Friars Liam, Elezear, Philip, Seamus, Brendan & Eugene.

May God who has begun the good work in them bring it to fulfilment.

REST IN PEACE
WE REMEMBER IN OUR PRAYERS

Susan Rush (Nee Meere), of Butler, New York, and formerly Ballylean, Kildysart, Co.Clare
